POLITICAL DEGENERACY.

The election of A. J. Jones to the Presidency of the Western Railroad is, perhaps, the strongest evidence of the deplorable condition to which political affairs have degenerated in North Carolina, that we have yet had. We feel that we are making a strong expression, but we believe we are justified in doing so. We suppose that we are to some extent acquainted with the corruptions and crimes which have disgraced our Legislature. We know we felt the humiliation and disgrace to which our State was subjected when officers of the State, the Speaker of the House, and members of the Legislature, with an excited mob of whites and blacks repaired to the depot to attack, and possibly to assassinate, one man, and, we were about to say, the additional disgrace when its Governor, drunk with malignity and hatred, rushed among his excited partisans, insulting and threatening a minister of the gospel, and urging on the mob and approving the violence until and after he had been severely and justly reproved by his brother-in-law, the Mayor of Raleigh; but when Holden was elected Governor, however illegitimately it was done, North Carolina had sunk as low in that scale, as his infamy could weigh her.

We supposed, however, that, in the management of our public works, even this Governor would have some regard for capacity and honesty. That Jones' character for honesty is not above reproach is no news to the readers of the Journal.—We have published and frequently referred to his attempt to swindle the State, in connection with Dr. Sloan, the then Treasurer, and his course of life since that criminal transaction, has not led those who have been thrown in contact with him to believe that he has repented of that affair.—Wilmington Journal.

A MAN IN A PEDDLER'S PACK.

A short time ago, just at dark, a peddler carrying a large pack appeared at the door of a wealthy farmer in the town of Green Garden, in this county, and requested the privilege of remaining over night. The farmer being away from home, he was informed by the hired man that he could not stay. He then requested the privilege of leaving his pack until morning, as he was very tired, and could not carry it further that night. This was granted, and the pack deposited in one corner of the sitting room. During the evening some of the females of the household had occasion to move it, and taking hold of it discovered that there was some thing suspicious about the contents. The hired man was called, and upon taking hold of it discovered that it contained a man. He quickly stepped into an adjoining room, and returned with a revolver, motioned the family to stand aside, and at once proceeded to fire three shots into it. A piercing shriek issued from it, and on ripping off the outside covering, a man with a large bowie knife and a revolver clinched in his hands, was found weltering in his blood. Two of the shots had proved fatal. The neighbors were alarmed, but no traces of the peddler who left the precious pack could be found.—Thus, by a mere accident, doubtless, a shocking case of robbery and perhaps murder, was prevented.

Know thyself is, according to Juvenal, a precept from Heaven; e cielo descendit. We do not know that the carpet-baggers ever heard of Heaven, or, if they had, would care about it; but as we like to dispense exact justice to all, we record a fact much to their credit, in North Carolina—unless, indeed, their African associates are entitled to the greater portion of the honor. The Legislature of that State, having made a thorough perusal of its capacity, came to the sage conclusion that it did not contain within itself the ability to frame bills to be enacted into laws. It consequently hit upon the shrewd device—an innovation, we believe—of employing council to draft bills. Three lawyers were engaged for the purpose at $200 a month, or $2,400 each per annum. What excites a little suspicion, respecting the honesty of the proceeding, and that the wool was pulled over Coffee's eyes, is that two of the three lawyers thus fed are carpet-bag judges, who receive this $2,400 gratuity in addition to their regular salary.

When the carpet-baggers have done with North Carolina she will be as dry as a squeezed lemon peel.—Richmond Whig.

MR. BRADY'S LAST WRITING.—The following remarkable passage is the last ever written by James T. Brady, the eminent New York lawyer, who died a few days since:

"Our brothers in the pilgrimage will fall at our side, but, however thickly the arrows of death may shower, we can, while our powers continue, do naught but move on until we reach the awful instant when we are to exchange the feeble pulses of transitory existence for the ceaseless throbbings of eternal life. There, even there, at that mysterious frontier, if we have been faithful and fearless in the march, we may lie down obedient to destiny, with the exalted hope that, after all the objects of this world shall have become lost forever to our mortal sight, there may be unfolded to our new and spiritual vision another realm of unimaginable glory, where we, and all whom we loved on earth, may realize the promise which the Great Ruler of the Universe has made unto the just."

A QUESTION.

They say the King of Burham's bless'd,
With fifty wives to soothe his rest;
If fatuiness ere the King should pain,
Would the King re-wive again?

"WHY, LYDIA—WHY?—Miss Lydia Thompson, addressing the New York papers anent the genuineness of her hair, writes as follows:—"I was born a blonde, and a blonde I will die." Now judging from this, we should either suppose Miss Thompson to be possessed, like Ninon de L'Enclos, with the secret of eternal youth and beauty, and a peculiar immunity from grey hair, or else that the last word of her sentence should have been spelled with a "y," instead of an "i."

To Bandmasters—Does the "March Wind" enter into the composition of a "Military Air?"

To Printers—May "Copy" be called "Slips of the pen?"

"OF COURSE IT COULDN'T."—"A Sea of Trouble," could never go to make up a "Pacific Ocean!"

CASH RATES!
CASH POLICIES!
CASH DIVIDENDS!

DIVIDENDS PAID ANNUALLY, COMMENCING AT THE END OF THE YEAR.

Dividends may be used to reduce the annual Premium or increase the Cash value of the Policy.

NON-FORFEITING CASH PLAN.

The Ætna issues Policies on the various forms of whole life and endowment insurance, with dividends on the contribution plan, which may be applied to the reduction of each annual premium after the first, or the full premium, may be paid each year and the dividens applied to reduce the number of annual premiums, together with the period fixed for the maturity of the insurance, so that endowments can be paid to the insured before the time originally specified, and life policies before death.

By this plan of applying the dividends to lessen the cost of the insurance on the original policy, instead of increasing the amount of insurance, and of course its total cost, and the policies will become self-sustaining much sooner than in other companies; and in case of inability to continue payments, give a larger paid-up-policy.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may, at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a per centage of said sum, and paid in cash, upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

The system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but, at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

The New York Insurance Monitor says of the ÆTNA:

"No Life Insurance Company ever achieved so complete a success as this popular institution. Its popularity is altogether unprecedented in the annals of commercial enterprise in this country."

LIFE INSURANCE.

The Most Vigorous and the Most Liberal Insurance Company in the Country.

BROOKLYN LIFE

INSURANCE COMPANY,

141 Broadway, N. Y.

ASSETS OVER

$1,000,000!

CHRISTIAN W. BOUCK, ... President.
ABRAM D. POLHEMUS, ... Vice President.
WILLIAM M. COLE, ... Secretary.
D. P. FACKLER, ... Consulting Actuary.
DANIEL AYRES, M. D., LL.D., Med. Examiner.

POLICIES ISSUED AS GOOD AS UNITED STATES BONDS.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE AS AT DEATH!

The BROOKLYN LIFE is the only Company in the country which guaranties a definite surrender-value to every Policy on which two or more annual premiums have been paid; this amount, in dollars and cents, is endorsed on every Policy issued. Should any Policy-holder become unable to pay his premiums, he can thus know the cash worth of the Policy at any time after two annual premiums have been paid.

This certainly is the greatest inducement and most tangible advantage ever accorded to parties insuring their lives.

Among the advantages offered by the BROOKLYN, which thoroughly evince the determination of the officers to make it the MOST LIBERAL Life Insurance Company in the United States, are:

1st. TOTAL REMOVAL OF ALL RESTRICTIONS ON TRAVEL AND RESIDENCE. The Assured may travel or reside anywhere they choose, the world over without extra premium or special permit.

2d. A Loan of one-third of the Premium to the Policy-Holder Annually.

3d. All Policies are non-forfeitable after two full annual premiums have been paid.

4th. Rates as low as are consistent with financial soundness, and less than those of almost all Companies which accommodate their assured with loans.

5th. Dividends annually (after second year) in cash. Dividends are divided on the CONTRIBUTION PLAN—the only equitable manner of dividing the earnings of a Life Insurance Company. The Contribution Plan was first conceived by Mr. D. P. Fackler, now Actuary of this Company and has been adopted by most of the best managed Life Companies in this country.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid and now pays to its Policy-holders LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

6th. Promptitude in paying losses.

7th. No charge for policy or stamp.

The success which the "BROOKLYN" has achieved, fully exemplified in its rapid and healthful growth, is a convincing proof of the confidence reposed by the public in its soundness, integrity and liberality.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

FRIDAY, APRIL 9, 1869.

CHIEF JUSTICE PEARSON TO GOV. HOLDEN.

"I am sorry, Governor, that the Court has ordered one of your officers to jail for contempt."

Governor Holden: "Court or no Court, Chief Justice or no Chief Justice, d——n me, Sir, if my officers go to jail until you go over the dead bodies of my militia."

Governor Holden as he is hurrying to the mob on Market Square, followed by a posse, meets a Minister of the Gospel, and without the least provocation raises a big black stick, and cries out with the voice of a white-livered coward, "Who are you, Sir?"

"BEGONE AND LEAVE ME, I'LL HEAR NO MORE."

In the Standard of yesterday, is an editorial, written by the Governor himself, calling for vengeance, death, plague and confusion, upon the coward who attempted to assassinate us. He says he has no language, sufficiently strong, to express his detestation of the man who committed this dastardly act. Yet the Governor, before it entered Booth's mind, advertised on the 5th of June, 1861, asking who would plot for old Abe's head! Shake not your grey locks at Booth, thou canst not say he did it all.

On Wednesday, the 24th day of March, the Governor's son, Speaker of the House, with a company of whites and blacks came to attack us at the depot. Every branch of the government was represented in the mob except the Judiciary. The Secretary of State had his brother, Ben; the Treasurer had his son, the Governor had his son, while the Superintendent of Public Works, Cebe Harris, was personally present, with his huge red club. The Senate was represented in the person of Davis, of Montgomery, carpet bagger. B. F. Menninger said, next day, he approached us with his pistol cocked in his pocket, Lieut. Pike said that Joe Holden asked him, on the morning of the 24th, to meet him at the depot, in the evening, upon the arrival of the train, and he did so. He farther said, he stood with pistol cocked in his pocket, waiting for Joe to advance. He (Pike) did not advance because it was not his fight, he had nothing against Turner.

There were nine of the mob; one man, a bully, was brought from Gaston county, as we are informed, for the purpose of whipping us. Our escape with life, from this mob, was as Providential as our escape from the assassin's pistol, at midnight, on the 6th of April.

If we had got out of the ladies' car it would have placed us in immediate contact with this armed mob. Joe would have raised his stick, we would have drawn our pistol and the mob would have shot us down, or Cebe Harris would have killed us with his club. Going out of the West instead of the East gate, as the mob calculated, we got forty-seven steps from the depot before they caught up to us. Seeing ourselves pursued, we drew a pistol, and threatened to shoot the man who advanced. The mob halted until the police arrested them. Now we had no more chance in such a fight than we had with the assassin who fired in our window. Yet the Governor, coming out of a grog shop excited with whiskey, into the Town Hall, bullied the Mayor, and refused to hush speaking, when three times ordered by the Mayor to do so. He spoke the mob into fever heat, and violence from them was imminent until a police officer cocked his pistol and threatened to shoot down the man who was guilty of a breach of the peace in the presence of the Court. Such is the Governor, who has not words to express his detestation of our assassination, on the night of the 6th of April. Yet, in his Town Hall speech, to the mob, he said, distinctly, he knew what his son was going to do, what he had done, and he approved of every word and act. How can he, honestly and sincerely, condemn the attempt upon our life on the night of the 6th, after approving the attempt on the 24th.

The Governor now says: If Mr. Turner will give his honor, as a gentleman, in a written statement, that the facts are as he has stated them, he (the Governor) will offer a reward of $300 for the apprehension of the perpetrator.

Now we say to the Governor, the midnight assassin may shoot every night, and your son Joe, Cebe Harris and the mob may meet us at the depot every day, rather than we would make a statement, on or off of honor, to a Governor who had publicly approved of an attempt to murder us.—Having approved of the one you could but be pleased at the other.

When called upon to go before the proper tribunal, the Court of the county, we shall make our statement, not upon honor but upon oath, and that we are ready to do.

The Governor said, in his Town Hall speech, to excite the mob, that "we had assailed his family." He refused to allow us to reply, and said "we should not reply, we should not reply." His son Joe said we should not reply. And so said Jenkins, son of the Treasurer, and so said the mob.

The Governor, in his editorial article in the Standard, repeating the false charge made in the Town Hall speech, says, "we, overstepping the widest latitude of the press, invaded the family circle, and publicly maligned them for their conduct in family matters, but (he adds) even such conduct is not a warrant for the knife or pistol of the assassin." This is a false statement, though made by the Governor in his Town Hall speech, and repeated by him under the name of J. B. Neathery & Co., in the Standard. Name the family we have assailed. We have studiously avoided all family matters. We have dealt only with men, the heads of families. We have not indulged in abusive epithets, even of the men. It is true we have published acts of villainy and fraud, perpetrated by public men upon the public treasury. We expect to continue it despite the Governor, Secret Leagues, Depot mobs and midnight assassins.

Look to the files of the Sentinel. We have never said an unkind word of Billy Henderson. We have often alluded to the fact that he stands indicted for mule stealing. We never said an abusive or unkind word of Starbuck, though we said he had been justly and properly presented by the Grand Jury of the Federal Court. Nor of Holden even have we said hard things or brought charges. We call him the morning star of the Assassination, because he was first to ask for the head of "Old Abe." We would not call him a liar, but we said we could prove him one by divers gentlemen, and so we can. This is the extent of our offending, and nothing more.

The Governor concludes his article by saying that "it is intimated by some who have long known Mr. Turner, that he himself fired into his office to gain notoriety, by reporting that an attempt had been made to assassinate him. We do not believe this, (says the Governor.) Mr. Turner may have an itching for notoriety, but we do not believe that he would take this method of obtaining it, and we are convinced that those who hold this view, are doing injustice to him. We say frankly, we do not believe him a man who would do such a contemptible action."

Then why do you want our statement on honor in writing? As the Mayor said in the Town Hall Meeting: Governor, "hush," we don't want to hear you; so we say, Governor, "Begone and leave us, we'll hear no more.

AT THE TABLE.

We were asked at dinner yesterday, why the competent and faithful Post Master, Mr. Miller, was turned out, and Calvin J. Rogers turned in.

We said, on the Holden principle of loyalty, for Holden called Andy Johnson "one of the most elegant devils out of hell," and said Abbott Lawrence, of Boston, bought him on the Federal side for the war; and his spirit of forgiveness made Holden Provisional Governor. Holden praised the second founder of the Republic—but soon Andy's political sun set under Republican clouds, and then Holden drew his dagger, and Brutus like, stabbed his foe, and he telegraphed that the peace and quiet of North Carolina demanded the impeachment and conviction and removal of his once dear friend. Now we say he served Andy right, while at the same time, it shows the Governor to be the abject wretch we thought him, and proves the truth of the poet who said:

"A friend's like a ship
When with music and song,
The tide of good fortune
Speeds him along,
But see him!
When fortune hath made him a wreck
And any mean widow can batter his deck."

Holden once asked who would plot for the head of Abe Lincoln. Holden preferred Judge Rodman to Judge Battle, because Rodman was secesh and ordered his neighbors' children to be shot for desertion, and Judge Battle was neither a secessionist nor a murderer.

By the operation of the Holden philosophy, Mr. Miller is turned out because he was a consistent Union man who can, and has taken, the test oath. By the same philosophy, Calvin J. Rogers is turned in, for, like Holden, he once asked for old Abe's head.

At a feast, in the better days of the Confederacy, given to Major York and his Company, Dr. Young, Holden's brother in-law, and Blow Your Horn Billy's General Ticket Agent, at the Shops, charged York and his Company, that when they returned from the war, they must bring him a lock of old Abe's hair. And I charge you, said Calvin J. Rogers, that you bring me his head. A year before this, Holden had advertised in his paper, asking who would plot for old Abe's head.

Both answered the question; pop! went the pistol, and off went his head. So much for Buckingham. No! Not so much for Buckingham. So much for Calvin, so much for Holden and the Holden philosophy.

FAILED FOR WANT OF ALDEN.

There was a vote yesterday for the sale of the State's interest in the North Carolina Railroad; the vote stood 19 for it. Judge Alden when he was on Holden's Reconstruction Staff, and before he fled the City by way of the Chatham county road to take the cars at Cary, said, the Legislature of North Carolina had been bought and he could buy that body again; and he actually proposed to a Banker in New York if he would join him in a speculation in North Carolina bonds, that he Alden could buy up a majority of the Legislature even to repudiate the bonds of the State.

Alden was guilty of a fraud, and swindle so gross, that it shows he would steal. Yes we say steal, and yet Alden was in as good standing with the party as any carpet bagger or native, that belonged to the Governor's Reconstruction Staff.

Except Galloway he was thought by some to be the strongest minded man of the party. If Alden had been here the Road might have had more supporters. But we know members who failed to vote and members who voted against the sale, who were committed to it the first of the session. They may come right next session, and they will be able to point to their vote of this session against it and say they were opposed to it, but necessity, necessity, and the honor of the State demand that we should now vote to sell. Governor Holden's silence had some effect upon the hands. The sale of the North Carolina Road bonds at 65, the purchase of 8,000 acres of land for the Penitentiary and the Governor's approval of both, coupled with the talk on the streets that the Governor would be the richest man in the State at the close of his administration had its effect upon the sale of the Road besides. We learn the Governor is trying to throw off the carpet-baggers.—The sale of the Road was a carpet-bag measure; its defeat was a native victory. Three cheers for the natives, including Cuffee Mayo!

Legislature of North Carolina.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

THURSDAY, April 8, 1869.

On motion of Mr. Vest, the rules were suspended, and the bill providing for a location of the Penitentiary was taken up.

On motion of the same, it was postponed until the bill to amend an act to provide for funding the matured interest on the public debt was considered which passed its several readings, when,

A message was received from the Senate announcing the death of R. I. Wynne, Senator from the 19th Senatorial District, and transmitting resolutions of respect to his memory.

After the usual eulogies, the resolutions were adopted, and the House adjourned until to-morrow morning.

SENATE.

FRIDAY, April 9, 1869.

The unfinished business of yesterday being the motion to concur in the House amendment to the School Bill.

Mr. Barrow moved that the Senate do concur.

And on this motion A. H. Galloway called for the yeas and nays, which resulted, yeas 26, nays 5.

Mr. Davis asked a leave of absence for Mr. Love, from and after to-day until adjournment—granted.

Mr. Welker called up the resolution introduced by him yesterday, instructing the sheriffs to pay the certificate of members for their per diem.

An act to extend the corporate limits of the town of Fayetteville—read second time.

Mr. Osborne at the request of certain citizens of Fayetteville, opposed the passage of the bill, and moved to lay on the table.

Mr. Harrington advocated the passage of the bill.

The yeas and nays being called resulted, yeas 5, nays 31. The bill passed its second and third readings.

Mr. Respass introduced a bill to establish a Book of Forms, adapted to the Code of Civil Procedure, in Superior Courts,—which Book of Forms was submitted.

Mr. Osborne offered, as an amendment, "that nothing contained in this act shall be so construed as to repeal an act passed by this General Assembly, suspending the Code of Civil Procedure." Adopted.

The bill then passed time.

Mr. Welker, at the request of the Senator from Cumberland, moved a reconsideration of the vote, by which the limits of the town of Fayetteville was extended.

Hyman, colored, moved to lay that motion on the table. Not agreed to.

Mr. Murphy then addressed the Senate, and, while he had no personal feeling or interest in the matter, proceeded to show, both by a petition and argument, why the corporate limits of the City of Fayetteville should not be extended. It had no political significance—it professed nothing in that direction—it was unjust to principle, and in fact, he was representing both parties, and know neither in this matter.

Mr. Barrow called the previous question—sustained, and the Senate refused to reconsider.

Bill to levy a special tax in Hertford, Duplin, Lenoir, Madison and Chatham,—passed 3rd time.

Mr. Respass asked that the bill authorizing the County of Beaufort to collect arrears of taxes, which was agreed to, and the bill passed its several readings.

On its third reading, Mr. Welker moved to lay on the table—yeas 16, nays 12.

Bill to incorporate the Planters Mutual Insurance and Trust Company, passed third time.

On motion of Mr. Love, the resolution in favor of A. L. Parton, was taken up on its second reading and rejected.

Resolution in favor of the tax collectors of Caldwell and Jackson—passed third time.

On motion of Mr. Respass, the bill to amend the of charter of the town of Washington, was taken up and passed its several readings.

On motion of Mr. Richardson, the bill to charter the Express Steamboat Company was taken up and passed it several readings.

On motion of Mr. Brogden, the bill incorporating the Cape Fear Agricultural Society was read and passed its several readings.

Mr. Robbins introduced an act, to repeal so much of the Revenue Act, as imposes a tax of 2½ per cent on tobacco in the leaf.

Messrs. Robbins, Winstead, Osborne and Stephens advocated the passage of the act.

Mr. Hayes was opposed to the passage of the bill—he was willing to still further reduce the tax, say, to 1½ per cent, but could see no reason why the entire tax should be removed.

Mr. Welker opposed the bill upon principle.

Mr. Davis held the same views with Mr. Welker.

Mr. Barnes asked, was the tax on tobacco higher than the tax imposed on his constituents who made brandy.

Mr. Hobbins continued to defend the bill.

Mr. Cook opposed the bill; while Mr. Lindsay advocated it, as necessary to protect the tobacco manufacturers, and keep them within the State.

Mr. Respass also opposed the bill, upon principle, and moved it be tabled, but withdrew the motion, to allow

Mr. Davis to state, that he had received a letter from a large manufacturer in Virginia, informing him, Mr. D, that in the face of the revenue bill, this manufacturer was about to remove to this State.

Mr. Graham favored the bill.

The question then being on its passage, the yeas and nays were called and resulted, yeas 30, nays 22.

Bill to authorize the Commissioners of Chatham to levy a special tax, passed its third time.

An act to enable the Commissioners of Elizabeth City to collect taxes, passed its third time.

Mr. Brogden from the Committee on Finance, reported on the subject of banks, setting forth, that the Committee had been unable to make the investigation sought by the General Assembly, as the officers of the bank of North Carolina withheld their books, and opposed every obstacle to the Committee in the discharge of their duty, and, for this reason,

Mr. Hayes offered his resignation as a member of the Committee, and for the same reason, Mr. Respass asked to be discharged from said Committee.

Bill to re-enact the charter of the town of Magnolia, passed its third time.

THE UNIVERSITY.—A correspondent writing from Chapel Hill gives the following particulars, which may be interesting to some:

"There are really nine boys going to school. Messrs. Poor, Roland, Sugg, Howell, Purifoy, Ward, Tinsley and Cates. I guess that Tinsley is somewhat more advanced in his studies than little Ward and Cates, and perhaps I do not over rate his attainments when I place him in McGuffey's second reader. I have heard there is only one in the Fresh Class.

Do come up to our commencement to see the little fellows graduate, but then we are in a dreadful dilemma about the gowns; those that were stolen by the guards, who were sent here to protect the property, and given to the negroes will not fit infant prodigies. One of these same gowns was given by the guards to a most degraded negro Miss, who parades the streets and feels as fine as Ben Butler with his silver spoons. But forbear awhile, I had forgotten the candidates who are awaiting admission. I have heard of only one, Sam Harvey by name, black as the ace of spades. I can't tell you what class he is waiting to join.

Yours truly,

ICHABOD.

FIRE.—On Monday last, the 5th, the residence of Sampson Boon, Esq., of this place, was consumed by fire. The fire occurred between one and two o'clock, P. M., and was purely accidental. A good deal of furniture was removed from the building, but in a damaged condition. No insurance. The loss is a heavy one to Mr. Boon.—Fayetteville Presbyterian.

At a festival held in Fayetteville, by the ladies of the Presbyterian Church last Tuesday and Wednesday nights, $450 were realized, of which amount probably $100 or $200 will be required to meet expenses.

THE FRUIT CROP.—The fruit crop, as was thought and expressed by many, some time ago, to have been injured by frost, is now believed to be only partially injured. The crop in this county and vicinity, we are told will yet be a fair one, should no more cold snaps interfere in the meantime.—Goldsboro Messenger.

THE SCUPPERNONG GRAPE.—A writer in the Rural New Yorker thus writes of the Scuppernong grape: "This grape is worth untold millions to the Southern people if they will but follow the example of Mr. Hart, of Wilmington, N. C., in developing its culture, and the conversion of its juice into good wine."

DIED:

At Asbury, N. C., on the 29th of March, ALSEY EATMAN, Esq., in the 66th year of his age. His death was very sudden and unexpected, caused from a disease of the heart. On the morning of the 29th he was as well as usual. That evening he gently fell asleep. He leaves a large family and many friends to mourn his loss. Having been a member of the M. E. Church for some forty years, we can but say he was a good man, a kind neighbor and an affectionate father. Peace to his ashes. In Heaven we hope to meet him. G.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

FRIDAY, APRIL 9, 1869

THE election yesterday resulted in favor of borrowing the $50,000 for the city. The majority is 52. The property holders voted, we presume, generally against the loan, but the non-property holders triumphed.—The property holders were not sufficiently active, or the result would have been different.

BRIGNOLI came, sang, and vanished.—The crowd was large, the interest great, the singing fine. We did not go. No cards.

AN IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT.—The North Carolina Real and Personal Estate Agency, which was chartered on the 26th of February last, makes a highly interesting announcement to-day in our advertising columns. We direct the attention of our readers specially to what they have to say. It will be seen by such reference, that they propose to make a very extraordinary sale—no less than $146,000 worth of property, at a fair valuation. There are to be sold 873,500 tickets at $2 each, which covers precisely the estimated value of the property. There are to be three thousand prizes. This will give a prize for every twenty-four tickets sold. The drawing will take place immediately after the sale of the tickets is effected. Due notice will be given so that any or all who are interested may be present if they so elect. There is an elegant residence situated in this city among the prizes offered. One of the handsomest and most desirable residences in Warrenton will be found among the three thousand prizes. The whole transaction will be under the supervision of two well known gentlemen, viz: Messrs. R. W. Best, and James H. Foote. The officers of the Company are, Captain J. G. Hester, President, John Dixon, Vice President, John C. Hester, Secretary and Treasurer, and R. G. Lewis, Attorney.

We can speak conscientiously as to the value of the residence in Warrenton. We believe it to be worth $5,000, the amount at which it is valued. We do not hesitate to say, that we fully believe that the entire transaction will be conducted in a fair and business like way. For particulars see the advertisement.

TRINITY COLLEGE.—Perhaps the greatest rage of the day is to bestow money for purposes of education. Dying men are exhorted to endow, and States are taxed to support, and the idea seems to be fixing itself that no school, specially College, can live without large endowment or direct State support. Trinity College shows all this to be fallacious. Trinity never has been assisted by donations. True, bonds were taken before the war, but nothing has ever been used by the College. The Trustees began simply with the charter, nothing else. They, without any exterior aid, have erected substantial buildings, paid their way, are out of debt, and now have an able Faculty, one that would command respect and confidence in any country, and a larger number of students than any other College in the State. Trinity is an honor to North Carolina. President Craven, as we learn, has been solicited several times this year to take some of the best positions in the Union. Trinity asks no State aid, begs no crumbs from the public crib; but offers the very best grade of education to North Carolina's sons, at reasonable rates.

THE IMPERIALIST.—By calling at the Book Store of Messrs. Williams & Lambeth, the reader may see the prospectus of a new paper to be published in New York, and to bear the very strange and undemocratic title of The Imperialist. These are verily transition times. We are gliding down a stream that is rushing on to anarchy and revolution. This proposed paper is to be started because republicanism is regarded as a failure, and it will "demand that on the ruins of this unfortunate republic shall be reared the firm and substantial structure of an EMPIRE."

When such a project is openly advocated, and no especial comment or interest or opposition is manifested, it only shows the character of the age, and renders palpable the fact that American people have become less attached to republican institutions than our forefathers were. It may be said, that the whole thing is too absurd to need exposure and opposition. Men who are familiar with the progress of affairs in Europe, and who have studied the history of nations know better than this. We are not so very unlike other people, and some day, as a travelled and accomplished gentleman said to us, "we will wake up and find ourselves under a monarchy." We expect to show now and then the course of events, and will keep our readers advised of all tendencies to "Imperialism." Grant the First, does not, somehow, to our ears, sound very great, but we may yet get accustomed to its "jingle."

LOOKING UP.—This old town is beginning to shake of the dust and ashes of life and to look aloft. Tobacco is rolling in—wagons rolling out—with the greenbacks—the carpenter's hammer discourses sweet music, and the painter is plying his brush. Who calls this a "finished town?"—Milton Chronicle.

REMARKS OF SENATOR ROBBINS,

ON THE BILL TO MAKE IT A FELONY TO GO DISGUISED. IN THE SENATE, APRIL 7, 1869.

MR. PRESIDENT:—Unless the 3rd section be stricken out, I cannot support this Bill. That section authorizes any man to shoot down with impunity any other man, whom he finds in disguise, and who refuses to surrender. The professed object of this Bill is to put down certain individuals and bands of men who are alleged to be in the habit of going forth disguised to execute summary punishment upon supposed offenders. It pretends to seek the preservation of order by preventing men from taking the law into their own hands. And yet here is, in this very law, a provision authorizing every man, under certain flimsy pretexts, to take the law into his own hands and take life and be guiltless. Sir, such a remedy is worse than the disease.

Cannot every Senator see the gross abuses to result from such an enactment? What will be easier than for the assassin to pistol, or mask, or wrap in a sheet, the victim whom he has slain, and thus escape punishment? If this 3rd section is adopted, the bill ought to be entitled "Assassination made easy."

Some Senators have been charitable enough to insinuate that those of us who are opposing this section are seeking to protect the "Ku Klux." Sir, with the assistance of this provision, if you pass it, the "Ku Klux" will need no further safeguard. The "Ku Klux, in his ghostly habiliments, and well armed, knowing that the man who challenges him to surrender will fire on him when he refuses, answers the challenge with a shot himself; and then he has nothing to do but transfer his grave clothes to the dead challenger, and himself is secure. What an original plan for suppressing the "Ku Klux Klan!"

It has been intimated here that the Democratic party are mainly responsible for the outrages against the peace of society. I indignantly hurl back the vile slander. With what face can Senators make such charges when ten days ago the Editor of the Conservative Democratic organ in this city was deliberately set upon at the Depot, by a party of leading Radical officials of State? When, moreover, not twelve hours ago, the same gentleman was fired upon, in his sanctum, by some cowardly assassin, under cover of darkness? When colored men, in various parts of the State, within the past six months, have been cruelly beaten, and their lives threatened, because they chose to vote the Democratic ticket?

Gentlemen here hold up their hands in holy-horror, as they recite the imaginary atrocities of that secret association—the bloody "ku-klux!"—secret association! And pray who inaugurated secret associations in this land? Who banded together the superstitious negroes in secret midnight leagues, and there, with others and red fires, and deceitful sorceries, wheedled and terrified them back into a slavery worse than that they had been freed from—a slavery of both soul and body? Who there taught them to hate the white man and to do violence to men of their own color who would not bow the knee to Radicalism? Who used these oath-bound multitudes of ignorant voters to overthrow a peerless system of State Government in North Carolina and inaugurate a hybrid system which promises nothing but ruin to our finances and a blight upon our civilization itself? Ye who have done these things, through the agency of secret oath bound societies, should be the last men on oath to talk about evils of secret associations! Sir, I am not here to apologize for the "ku klux," as they are elegantly termed; but so far as I can learn, the "klan" is an organization gotten up purely in self-defence against your own midnight conclaves. Those who set the example by inaugurating the "Leagues" are responsible for the other, and justly accountable for all the evils that may result. "Cast out the beam, and then look after the mote."

One Senator, with the usual anxiety of human nature to lay blame on somebody else than one's self, has also charged all the evils of the times on the much belabored doctrine of secession. How beautifully consistent, when that very Senator fought in the Confederate army to maintain and make good the said doctrine of secession! But the Senator says he was a good Union man and did not believe in secession. Will the Senator tell me whether a man, who fought for secession and thought it wrong, is any better or more praiseworthy than those of us who fought for it and thought it right? How long shall it be before North men and Southrons, alike shall cease to honor renegades and "traitors to their own treason," and learn to respect rather those who are too brave and high-souled to revile their own record and their fallen comrades, and too proud to "bend the pregnant hinges of the knee that thrift may follow fawning!"

Sir, none of these subterfuges are worth anything. The returned Confederate soldiers are among the most sober and orderly members of society, even their enemies being judges. The man who may assert the contrary is a slanderer, and I brand him as such. Let others chant pæans to the conqueror. I say, eternal honor to the poor Confederate soldiers! While their adversaries, coming, too, from the vaunted land of the higher civilization, did not scruple to tear rings and bracelets and watches from the persons of our fair women, with many a foul insult, as they marched through our stricken land, our bronzed veterans in the enemy's land insulted no woman, perpetrated no robberies, but imitating the christian courtesy of their renowned commander, they have, in my hearing, asked even permission to eat cherries from the trees of the Pennsylvanians. I am proud to stand here, in the face of all the world, and speak a word in behalf my poor comrades for whom no victor's chaplets will ever be woven, but whose deathless deeds and spotless fame shall always have one voice that dares to praise them while this heart beats!

The true and main cause of the outrages and disorders of the times is the incendiary teachings of Radicalism, starting, as I have reason to believe, in the dark plottings of the midnight "Leagues," with their promises of confiscated land and mules to be divided out among deluded votaries, and encouraged by public addresses of men in high places covertly, if not intentionally, inciting to robbery, arson, and other high crimes. I am happy it gentlemen here have learned to deplore, with me, the evil results of all these unfortunate teachings, and are now anxious to seek the repression of the violence springing therefrom, and for which they are primarily responsible. I shall cheerfully support any proper measure looking to that end; and am ready to vote for this bill, if the obnoxious and dangerous section is stricken out to which I have averted. That section virtually provides a shield for murder. The innocent will suffer by it; the guilty will escape. Strike it out and let us pass the bill. Perhaps it may do something to restrain lawlessness in the State. No man is more anxious than myself to effect this object so essential to our growth and prosperity. No man is more opposed to mob violence, in all its forms, and regardless of the occasion which may seem to palliate its exercise. In sound and wise laws, regularly and faithfully administered, lies all our safety. And these you will find to be the sentiments of the masses of the substantial and intelligent citizens of the State, constituting, as they mainly do the noble, though much maligned, political party of which I have the honor to be an humble member.

For the Sentinel.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
Raleigh, N. C., April 8, 1868.

H. A. Bodham, Esq., Graham, N. C.:

MY DEAR SIR—Your mild, chaste and conciliatory epistle, addressed to me, through the Standard, of the 7th instant, is to hand, and I must say, in reply, that it is a natural and legitimate result, for great men like you to have your name to appear in print. Was I not so thoroughly impressed with the belief that your only object in writing to me, was to get your name before the public, and for fear you might accuse me of treachery, I should have declined at once to not ee your letter. But rather than you should accuse me of being an obstacle in the way, of your efforts to reach the "pinnacle where fame's proud temple shines afar," I have condescended to engage with you in this "war of words and fight of quills," under the full conviction, that to the "victor belongs the spoils." Were you Major, still cured with hydrophobia, instead of Ku Klux mania, the deep fountains of my compassion, would gush forth in limpid streams of mercy, to give relief to your affliction and consolation to your distress, but as your letter would intimate that I am the cause of your affliction instead of yourself, I suppose you would desire other hands than mine to apply the remedies. Your allusion, Major, to my "Card" of the 10th of February, to which "you and so many of your good citizens agreed was calculated to do much harm, and which you are free to admit was penned with no wicked intent," was based on testimony received, and not from evidence in fact, as you so graphically describe, in a manner worthy the "head if not the heart" of Blackstone's honored disciple. Major, I regret exceedingly that the peace of any county, or even any family, should be disturbed by your teachings, had I the influence you so graciously attribute, I would unhesitatingly say to the troubled waters, "peace be still" and to the inaugurators of your "new rebellion," "shake not your gory locks at me, thou canst not say I did it;" however much you may desire, Major, to create the impression on the public mind, that I am responsible instead of yourself, for the condition of things you represent. But, Major, I am truly grateful for your public acknowledgment, that I have so conducted myself as to be able to wield so great an influence over the good people of Alamance—it is certainly a responsibility I have never arrogated to myself. Hear him: "I will not for a moment believe, that all this was foreseen or contemplated by you; but, Doctor, your people heard and recognized your voice, and they followed you, as the flock does the shepherd. And you led these people to do that which you and they must ever regret." I will say in reply to this foul assertion, Major, that it is simply base and slanderous, and not unworthy of the source from which it sprung. I will not attempt to follow your very polite and manly letter, through its various windings and ungentlemanly insinuations, fixing the responsibility on me, (which I did not believe at the time I penned you the note on the first instant) as being connected with, and becoming an apologist for, your "new rebellion" in Alamance. I think it should be beneath the notice, if not the contempt, of a gentleman

The other day, when I received your note, in reference to an editorial, in the Sentinel which you thought reflected to your discredit, I very promptly replied and corrected that portion which was incorrectly reported. And I was a little surprised a few days afterwards, to find our correspondence in the Standard, together with a communication addressed to me, equal in wit and sarcasm, to Junius celebrated letter to the King; in which you revealed your true character in that low sarcastic style, which made it necessary for me, to reply in self defence, otherwise I should have treated it, with profound silence. Major why you should single me out, as a mark to shoot at, I am at a loss to know, unless you hope to find a vital vulnerable point, in which you could suppress your discovered ambition at my expense, but I will say in conclusion that in every attack you may see fit to make, on me, either in a private or public capacity, you shall find a "foeman worthy of your steel." I beg your pardon for using the term "Major," so freely as I was forced to it in self defence, as you only used the term "Doctor" nine times in your celebrated letter.

Hoping that peace and quiet may reign supreme in Alamance, as I believe it will, unless disturbed by your teachings, I subscribe myself as I am,

Your humble and obedient servant,
J. A. MOORE.

Thursday Midnight Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—Gen Young, representative from Georgia, informed the delegation from that State to-day that Mr. Butler's Georgia bill would not probably be resumed this session, and if taken up would certainly be defeated.

The Georgia delegation, headed by Col. Atkins, had a private interview with the President to-day.

CONGRESSIONAL.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—HOUSE.—Mr. HAMS, the minority candidate from the third South Carolina District, was seated Mr. Reed who received a majority of votes, was unable to take the test oath.

A bill authorizing the submission of the Constitutions and election of State officers and members of Congress in Virginia, Mississippi and Texas, passed by a vote of 145 to 24. It authorizes the President to order elections at his discretion. Also authorizes him to submit the entire Constitutions or separate provisions, and forbids the election in Texas until authorized by the President. The commanding General may, with the approval of the President, suspend any existing State law in either of the three States deemed oppressive, until action by the Legislatures, which shall assemble on the 4th Tuesday after the ratification is promulgated by the commanding General.

Mr. Howard expressed the same views. A long discussion ensued. No action.

The bill amending the taxes on whiskey and tobacco was resumed, when Mr. Sprague spoke till executive session. Adjourned.

CAUTION! WE desire to warn the dealers in, and consumers of Snuff generally, that since the war, certain Tobacco Manufacturers, being unable to find a market for their snuffs, felt themselves obliged to counterfeit the general appearance of our packages, and imitate our Trade Marks so that a close inspection is necessary to detect the spurious article from the genuine, and others going so far as to assert that "Lorillard's Snuff is no longer made."

In making this publication we desire to warn the public against the impositions practised upon them, as they are the losers thereby. It will be found, upon comparison, that Lorillard's Snuff is "far ahead" of all others, being made of the best stock, after an original and secret process known only to ourselves, besides possessing great age, strength and pungency, and is warranted not to contain any dangerous or deleterious substances, which cannot be said of many worthless articles put on sale by others. The best is the cheapest in the end. A circular will always be mailed on application. In ordering please specify if Salt Snuff (High Toast,) or Fresh Snuff (Extra Scotch) is desired.

LIFE INSURANCE.

NATIONAL

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
OF THE
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
WASHINGTON, D. C.

Chartered by Special Act of Congress, Approved July 25th, 1868.

CASH CAPITAL,

$1,000,000,

PAID IN FULL.

It is no longer a question with any man, who tenderly loves his wife and children, who considers how helpless would be their condition in case of his death, as to the duty of taking out a LIFE POLICY, but as to which Company he shall pay his money.

If he reflects a moment he will conclude to patronize the Company which shows the greatest degree of vitality, which extends its business over the largest area, which is a Home Company in every locality; which furnishes insurance at the least cost; which issues no policies that are forfeitable should he be unable next year, or any subsequent year to pay his renewal; and which is undoubtedly able to meet ALL ITS PROMISES.

With these feelings and views, he looks over the newspapers and, by the time he gets through reading the advertisements of Mutual or Mixed Companies, he finds his mind so muddled that he is at a loss where to go or what to do. He can not comprehend one-half that is written, and concludes that none but ACTUARIES, who are familiar with the principles upon which Life Insurance is based can comprehend or explain anything about dividends and his liability for notes given in part payment of premiums. In his dilemma, he looks into the plan adopted by the

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
U. S. A.,

and finds just what he wants:

An ALL CASH PLAN, reduced to the LOWEST MINIMUM Rate, like any commodity in Market, so much Insurance for so much Money. No notes to give; no interest to pay; no anxiety about Assessments; no apprehension of his Policy being forfeited next year if he does not pay his annual Renewal; and the RATES so much LOWER than other Companies, that he realizes a larger Dividend, IN ADVANCE, than other Companies can pay him in the future.

He finds that, instead of this UNCERTAIN PROMISE, and present high rate, that the presents a certain and definite sum for a much lower rate, and puts up its paid up Capital of $1,000,000

NATIONAL

as a guarantee fund, that its contracts will be fulfilled, and, like thousands of others, cheerfully calls on their Agent to make his application for a Policy. Hence the unprecedented and most wonderful success of the NATIONAL as contrasted with the older and Mutual Companies.

The Company issued its first policy on the 1st of August, 1868, and up to March 1st, 1869, it had issued 3,562 policies.

Amount insured,	$10 006,250.00
Total Premiums,	350,117.63

The whole number issued by the Connecticut Mutual in the first year of its existence was 892

By the Mutual Benefit of New Jersey,	691
" New England Mutual,	543
" Phœnix Mutual,	535
" Massachusetts Mutual,	312
" Equitable of New York,	277

The Mutual Life, of New York, in the first year of its existence, only issued 470 policies.

In its 10th year,	4,260 "
And in its 20th year,	2,842 "

this latter being 630 less than was issued by the NATIONAL in its first seven months.

Patented Sept. 22, 1868.

REASONS FOR PREFERRING THIS SOAP.

The Patentee claims for this Soap the following advantages which are clearly set forth in the Letters Patent, to-wit:

First, it can be manufactured at less than half the cost of any soap ever produced.

Secondly, it may be used successfully in any kind of water—cold or hot, hard or soft.

Thirdly, it so modifies the action of boiling water on woollen goods that their fibres do not contract under its influence, and your woollen garment is as large after boiling as before.

Fourth, it does not decompose the colors of goods, and your prints and stripes are as brilliant after washing as before.

Fifth, the goods do not require any rubbing or patent washing machine—all that is necessary is a few minutes boiling and a good rinsing.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.

It will be the zealous and fearless advocate of the CONSTITUTION of the United States, seeking to bring the people back to their ancient reverence for that immortal instrument, and to restore the policy of the country to that honored standard, as the only guarantee of National prosperity.

It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who set themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.

It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational, material and political.

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC

CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

THIS BOILER IS MOST EFFECTUAL, reliable and universal. Recommended. It can be used on any Stove or Range, as any boiler, and the LOW PRICE of the article places it within the reach of every family.

This Boiler operates upon purely philosophical principles, is self-acting, and dispenses with labor and the wear of the clothes.

The hot suds and steam, by the action of heat, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleaning all articles, from the finest laces to the heaviest. For Flannels it is invaluable, as it does not full them as in the old process of rubbing and pressing.

The time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes is twenty to thirty minutes, and nearly three hundred gallons of boiling suds are forced through the fabric, thoroughly scouring and cleansing the dirt without labor or friction.—A thorough rinsing finishes the process.

Washing day will no longer be a terror and dread to housewives. The cost of the Boiler will soon be returned in the SAVING OF TIME AND LABOR, and the great saving in the wear of clothes.

The great value of this invention appears so clear, and appeals so directly to common sense, that we have deemed it unnecessary to accompany the Boilers with numerous letters of approval, &c.

So invention has met with such ready sale and given such satisfaction. Call at LOUGEE & BROTHERS, and see its wonderful operations.—We have the exclusive right to sell and manufacture in the state.
